

The Brave Owl and the Stormy Night

One stormy night, the forest was full of fear. The wind howled, trees bent, and thunder shook the sky.

A little rabbit was lost in the dark. He cried, “I can’t find my home!” The strong storm made him shiver.

From a tall tree, a wise owl noticed the scared rabbit. The owl flew down and said kindly, “Don’t worry, little one. I will help you.”

As they walked together, they found a squirrel trapped under a fallen branch. The rabbit and the owl worked hard and helped the squirrel escape.

Finally, they reached a safe cave where other animals were waiting. Everyone cheered for the owl’s courage and the rabbit’s kindness.

★ Moral: Even in fear and darkness, kindness and courage bring light. Helping others makes us all stronger.
